

Rail Car Mechanical Repair / Welder Lanigan, Saskatchewan

Procor Limited manages Canada's largest private tank car lease fleet and operates an extensive repair network across the country. Our fleet has grown to include more than 31,000 special purpose tank and freight cars. Procor also operates 27 repair locations servicing the petroleum, petrochemicals, plastics, chemicals, fertilizers and food markets.

We have exciting opportunities for reliable Rail Car Mechanical Repair / Welders at our Lanigan, Saskatchewan location on the site of Canpotex Railcar Maintenance Facility. This opportunity is perfect for someone with experience looking for a stable position in an organization that offers advancement.

Job Summary:

Principal duties in this position are car repairs including but not limited to:

- Car repairs involving cutting and welding on the rail car roof, body and other components
- Light and medium-duty mechanical repairs to rail cars
- Adhere to health and safety standards, including Responsible Care Policy
- Read, comprehend, and follow repair orders and procedures
- Other related duties as assigned

This role offers the successful candidate to work Afternoon shift. The normal work schedule for this role will be Sunday to Thursday, 8-hour shifts. Please be advised that the schedule may change as business needs dictate.

Requirements:

- Be fully vaccinated of COVID-19 as per on-site customer requirements.
- Previous railcar repair experience and knowledge of AAR standards an asset.
- Able to perform all necessary repairs of railcars and their components.
- Competent and safe use of hand tools and power equipment.
- Experience Torch and Plasma Cutting, and Stick/MIG Welding (SMAW/FCAW).
- Perform and document quality control checks as required by Company quality standards.
- Must be able to read and understand written work orders and material safety data sheets.
- Must be able to pass an in-house weld test.
- Must be able to work in an environment with continuous exposure to outdoor weather and/or conditions with dust, fumes, and noise.
- Must be able to climb, stoop, and bend repeatedly, carry hand and power tools.
- Adhere to Procor's health and safety standards (including the Responsible Care policy) and wear the required personal protective equipment for the job in a safe manner, including respirators (full and half face), hearing protection, eye protection, steel toed boots, and fall protection.
- Comfortable working at heights, in confined spaces and around machinery.

- The ability to work well independently as well as with a team.
- Detail-oriented and committed to quality.
- Completes tasks with a sense of urgency while delivering safe and accurate results.
- Valid driver's license and reliable transportation to get to and from work.

All applicants are required to complete and pass our full medical testing upon hire.

Benefits:

Procor Limited is an equal opportunity employer offering employees the opportunity to be a contributing member of a successful team as well as competitive wages and extensive benefit coverage:

- Group benefits including dental, vision, and insurance
- Generous pension and retirement savings plans
- Personal rebates for fitness, computers and education

Interested applicants are invited to submit their resume and cover letter to the email indicated through Indeed.

We thank all applicants for their interest in Procor Limited, however only successful candidates will be contacted.

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent